Changes of Chairman, President and Representative Directors

Kawasaki Kisen Kaisha, Ltd. ("K" Line) has decided in a board meeting held today on changes of Chairman, President and Representative Directors.

1. Reason of the changes

While having its 100th anniversary in April 2019, "K" Line has developed its business foundation for the future under the current management to rebuild a stable earnings structure, including the establishment of the integrated containership company, in addition to priority themes set in its medium-term management plan "Revival for Greater Strides". Therefore, "K" Line has decided these changes to solidify the foundation under the new management by undergoing a rejuvenation with its 100th anniversary.
