Kawasaki Kisen Kaisha, Ltd.

"K" LINE receives '2024 Award for Excellence in Corporate Disclosure' for the first time from The Securities Analysts Association of Japan

Kawasaki Kisen Kaisha, Ltd. ("K" LINE) has been selected as the excellent company for '2024 Awards for Excellence in Corporate Disclosure' by The Securities Analysts Association of Japan in the category of transportation companies. This is the first time that "K" LINE has received this award.

The award selection process is carried out by the Corporate Disclosure Study Group, established by The Securities Analysts Association of Japan, who evaluates the quality, volume and timing of a company's disclosure practices in accordance with the following criteria: (1) management's stance on investor relations, the function of a company's investor relations department, and a company's basic stance on investor relations; (2) disclosures by means of meetings, interviews and explanatory materials, (3) fairness of disclosure, (4) disclosure of information related to ESG and (5) voluntary disclosure of information based on the conditions of each respective industry.

"K" LINE seeks to enhance appropriate disclosure and interactive communication with our stakeholders, including shareholders and investors.
